There is substance in the preliminary objection raised by the Advocate for the respondent that the petitioner has an efficacious and adequate remedy by making an application for setting aside the Award dated 7.1.2005 in accordance with Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

The writ petition, thus, does not deserve to be entertained. It is dismissed accordingly. The dismissal of the petition by us shall not preclude the petitioner from making an application for setting aside the impugned award in accordance with Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.
